

Ingham County 4-H Council on February 18th

Approved April 15, 2009

Meeting called to order by sandy at 7:01

Introductions: Jared Mentick

Absences:

Secretary – Kayla Vanorder will go to the Navy not the Army

Treasurer – Savings – $2,288.45
Balance – $3,233.03

Fair board report – Debbie talked about moving exhibits. They will be moving the draft horses closer to the grandstands to prevent accidents. Booths will be the same size and there is going to be lighting upgrades. The water leak was fixed. The horses will be moved to the commercial building.

Correspondence – Leah went to communications day with some fellow club members. They won $250 for the county to use for what they wish. Leah's article will be in the clover leaf.

4-H staff – governor Granholm released cuts for the New Year. 4-H will take a 50% budget cut. Reporter will be calling some 4-Hers. The MSU wants to know about incredible teens that have overcome or worked really hard for something. Talk to ginger for more information. Stephanie, akia, and Betty Jo went to a program to talk about 4-H. The tack sale will be on the 28th; Jerry Robinson will be signing books there. The Intern made a resource guide and will be posting it on the website and on emails. Michigan Farmer had an article about Jennifer's sister, Heather, about their goats.

Participation – March 21st deadline for participation. This money is for new and creative projects.

Nomination – Ginger working with group

Fund raising – will have a meeting after

Transportation – will bring budget report next month

Food – Will meet next month before meeting

Volunteer – Canceled because of no RSVP and will see what happens. Leaders will not be able to help without selection.

Horse – Little international will maybe happen at the horse camp. Project red will be on March 21st.

Goat – Meets tomorrow

Shooting sports – Shooting sports and goats made handbook about everything.

Submitted by
Dakota Riehl