Student Art Show and Ice Cream Social
Reach Studio Art Center
May 22, 2008

Reach Studio Art Center's Annual "Spring Thing" Student Art Show and Ice Cream Social took place Thursday, May 22, from 4:00 - 6:00 at 1804 S. Washington Ave, Lansing.

Attendees were surrounded by children's art and ceramic pieces donated by adult artists that were set-up by AmeriCorps VISTA member, Amy Radigan. About fifty people attended and many children brought their families to see their art on display. Reach Studio Art Center Director, Alice Brinkman, says she was very pleased with the turnout.

Over $300 were raised from proceeds from art created by Reach participants and a silent auction for two giant animal "masks" created by Reach Creative Connections students that were previously exhibited at Potter Park Zoo last year.
