

is pleased to present, for FREE,

Thematic Roundtable

Tuesday, June 2, 2009

2:00 pm – 5:00 pm

Hannah Community Center
819 Abbott Road in East Lansing
Executive Conference Room

This networking event is targeting organizations that work either directly or indirectly with at-risk youth, homeless persons, and/or re-entering prisoners. After a keynote on the value of networking from Kelly Rossman-McKinney, we'll use structured activities and facilitation to explore your commonalities and discover ways to build each others' capacity in order to better serve your target populations.

The Keynote Speaker: Kelly Rossman-McKinney is the CEO of The Rossman Group, a full-service public relations firm. She has more than 20 years of experience in the news media, research methodologies, state government and Legislature, and in various public relations disciplines. She is a nationally accredited public relations counselor and a certified crisis communications counselor.

Advance registration is requested

- ❖ Send a separate registration for each participant, by email, to Wendy Duke-Littlejohn at wduke@ingham.org
- ❖ Registrations must include – Name, Title/Position, Organization, Daytime Phone Number, Individual E-mail Address and Workshop Title